

MIND & BRAIN V

Post-conference tour offer

- Day 1 DUBROVNIK – TROGIR – SPLIT

After breakfast in the hotel departure from Dubrovnik towards Trogir.

Arrival in Trogir and guided tour of the city center with a local guide (entrance fee in St Lawrence's cathedral included)

*The historical core of Trogir is the best-preserved Romanesque-Gothic complex not only in the Adriatic but in all of Central Europe. Trogir's medieval core, surrounded by walls, comprises a preserved castle and tower and a series of dwellings and palaces from the Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque periods.
Lunch in the typical restaurant*

In the afternoon guided tour of Split (entrance fees in the basements of Diocletian's palace and the Cathedral)

The Roman Emperor Diocletian spent his declining years in an enormous palace that he had built near his birthplace, Aspalathos, in Dalmatia. With the passing centuries the original architecture of the palace has been altered, but the people of the city, later called Spalato, and then Split, were able to use the structure of the palace, damaging it as little as possible, under Byzantine, Venetian and Austro-Hungarian rule.

Dinner and overnight in Hotel 4* in Split

- Day 2 SPLIT – PLITVICE – ZAGREB

After breakfast in the hotel departure towards Plitvice. Upon arrival lunch in a typical restaurant. Guided tour in the national park «Plitvice lakes»

The River Korana creates a chain of about twenty limpid, emerald-green lakes and pools, arranged stepwise and punctuated by dolomite barriers formed by travertine sedimentation. The water flows down from one lake to the next over waterfalls, creating a majestic architectural phenomenon of nature in motion. The lakes are surrounded by luxuriant forests of beech, fir and spruce.

In the afternoon continuation towards Zagreb and panoramic sightseeing of the Croatian capital

Zagreb is a major Croatian tourist centre, not only in terms of transit from West and Central Europe to the Adriatic Sea but also as a tourist destination. The city with a tradition of almost one thousand years celebrated in 1994 its 900th birthday. Zagreb is not only rich in cultural and historical monuments, museums and galleries, it also has a variety of modern shops, and offers good quality of diversified restaurants as well as sports and recreation facilities.

Dinner in a typical restaurant. Overnight in Hotel 4* in Zagreb.

- Day 3 ZAGREB

Transfer from hotel to the airport of Zagreb

QUOTATION:

Price per person for minimum 20 pax:

315,00 EUR per person (accommodation in double room)

385,00 EUR per person (accommodation in single room)

Prices include:

- All transfers in modern high class bus according to the program
- English speaking guide for the whole trip
- Local guides in Split and Trogir
- Two overnights in hotels 4* in Split and Zagreb (half board)
- Accommodation for guide and driver
- All entrance fees according to the program:
 - St Laurence's cathedral – Trogir
 - Diocletian palace basements
 - Cathedral – Split
 - Plitvice lakes – national park
- Lunches and dinners in the following restaurants:
 - Konoba Tragos – Trogir
 - Restaurant Lička kuća – Plitvice
 - Pivnica Medvedgrad – Zagreb